FLOOR DEBATE

May 10, 2001

LB 242

Kristensen. I have kept my mouth shut all morning and most of the afternoon, sitting here having a diet sandwich of lettuce, red mustard, and turkey, and I get accused of overdoing my eating. I don't take that as an offense. In the last three years, I've lost a considerable amount of weight because of a condition in my heart, but my heart being in the right place, I forgive Senator Kristensen for his remarks about me sitting here stuffing my face. With that, Mr. Lieutenant Governor, I return the rest of my time to my good close friend, Senator Kristensen, if he would like to have my time. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Kristensen, three minutes and forty-five seconds.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Well, Senator Janssen, I will give you my apology, and you were just close and I wouldn't want to upset that fine turkey sandwich that you were having. So, that's probably true. I assume that most of us wear jackets on the floor, if we can get them on. And, with that, Mr. President, I would certainly urge the adoption of the Beutler amendment and offer my apologies to Senator Janssen.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Kristensen. Senator Wehrbein, on the Beutler amendment.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Mr. President, members, just a point of clarification with Senator Beutler's amendment.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Beutler.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Did I understand just the financial statement has to be filed in the case of the election commissioner, not the...your Accountability and Disclosure forms? Can't remember the numbers, but I can't...I can't clarify it on my mach...I can't...I don't have the amendment, Senator Kristensen, so...

SENATOR BEUTLER: Yeah.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Is that accurate?

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Beutler.
